

“Atlantic Georgia” - subsidiary of Groupe Atlantic (<http://www.groupe-atlantic.com/>), International French Company specializing in production of water heaters, has open its first factory in Georgia since 2017. The company has ambitious growing and development plans and looking for the new team members to join.

Atlantic Georgia is announcing an opening for the position of Process Engineer.

Location: Kutaisi, Georgia

Employment Type: Full Time

Duties and responsibilities

- Under Process Manager’s guidance analyze the breakdowns of the processes, equipment, machines and find the solutions for the existing problems, prepare preventive recommendations;
- Support and improve technological processes in defined areas by defining the incoming and outgoing process criteria for the products manufactured by the Company (workshop, area) and for all kinds of different work complexity;
- Follow up of performance indicators (OEE);
- Follow up defined production process area;
- Work on Stabilization of the current processes and them continuous improvement;
- Act as Process expert for the projects of new line and/or new products;
- In collaboration with the Quality and R&D department: develop new processes, analyze the reasons of deviation and non-conformities in the quality of final products and its components, participate in the development of measures to prevent and eliminate them, as well as in handling complaints regarding the produced products;
- To be risk- and safe-oriented in all activities.

Required Qualifications

- Bachelor degree in engineering (Possible specialization in mechanics, chemistry, quality, etc.);
- Ability to understand drawings, material specifications, standards
- Understanding basic of material science, math statistic
- Good user level in MS Office products (Word, Excel, Power Point)
- Good knowledge of English language;

Attitude

- Listening, humility, assertiveness
- Rigorous, multi-tasks management
- Tenacity, focused on objectives
- Resistance to stress
- Proactive attitude
- Analytical skills;

Interested candidates should submit their CV to the following email address: hrgeorgia@groupe-atlantic.com no later than 15.04.2022, please indicate in the subject line the position title you are applying for.